

Ledbury Naturalists' Field Club Summer Programme 2022

Whilst every attempt will be made to adhere to this program it may be subject to change and Members will be notified of full details prior to each event

Saturday 21 st May	Knapp and Paper Mill Walk at 2.00pm Alfrick Pound, Worcester WR6 5HR Following the trail – spring flowers and birds	Garth Lowe
Wednesday 15 th June	Walk around Gilfach (SN962718 – LD6 5LF) and Cefn Cenarth (SN 964759 – LD6 5LR) – All day Visit 10.00am to 4.00pm A two-site visit to Radnorshire Wildlife Trust Reserves Wildflowers and woodlands with lichen, blueberries and lots of birds	Alan Pike and Anne Crane
Saturday, 25 th June	Visit to Clay Farms, Fawley. Fawley Court Farm HR1 4SP Details to follow	Mark Wood
Friday 1 st July	Glow Worm survey in Haugh Wood with optional meal in local pub before. This is an evening visit. The survey will commence at 9.45pm. Optional meal will be booked for 7.30pm	Kate Wollen
Saturday 9 th July	Butterflies in Haugh Wood 2.00 pm A walk looking for butterflies under the expert guidance of Ledbury Naturalists' member Bob Hall	Bob Hall
Saturday 13 th August	Dragonflies and fledglings at Woorgreens Lake and Crabtree Hill – 2.00pm Forest of Dean Visit near Cinderford GL14 3HX A walk around Gloucester Wildlife Trust reserve – a premier site for dragonflies and birds.	Eden and Wendy Tanner

Sunday 28 th August	Visit to work party sites in Frith Wood (Bellflowers) A chance to see the excellent work carried out by the work parties. This will be followed by an (optional) meal at the local pub.	Alan Pike and Anne Crane
Saturday 17 th September	Bircher Common – Adders This will be a morning start – approx. 10.00 am	Nigel Hand
Saturday 1 st October	Fungus Walk at Chase End Hill near Bromesberrow Meet at Chase End at 2.00 pm	The Club